1. Introduction & Background

The complainant filed this complaint alleging that We paid Rs. 9.5 lakh for catering. Within hours, 64 guests, including the bride’s grandmother, were hospitalised with food poisoning. The hospital attributed it to contaminated food. The caterer denies it and refuses a refund. I ask for refund, hospital costs and compensation for the loss of reputation and distress..

2. The Defense (Defendant's Version)

The opposite party denied the allegations and submitted that it was not liable for the claim. The defence was examined in light of the material placed on record.

3. Evidence Presented

The Court considered the complaint pleadings, documentary evidence, witness statement(s), advocate submissions and relevant records before arriving at its conclusion.

4. Main Questions to Decide (Issues)

1. Whether the complaint is proved against the opposite party.
2. Whether the complainant is entitled to the relief claimed.
